About Diana

Diana's relocation to Melbourne from South Africa and Mauritius began with her carrying a piece of paper with her name on it! Now she's helped our clients with their own journeys to Melbourne, using her personal experience and deep understanding of the city's unique qualities.

When asked about what she loves about being a relocation consultant, she immediately replied, "I love telling people how wonderful Melbourne is and how much there is to do and see."

"Don't ever be put off by a boring looking door - some of Melbournes best cafés, bars, shops and houses can be found behind there," she added.

To get to know the city, Diana advises, "Join groups, explore the city and surrounds. Melbourne is so diverse - beach, mountains and snow close by. Day trips offer so much. Melbourne city itself is fabulous. Try and stay overnight in the city once a year - you get a totally different perspective being a holiday maker in your own city."
